

This "documentary" is an incredible affront to the idea of a democratic election. Sinclair must give networks the option of airing the show. If that many people are interested, they can watch it on Fox.